

GREEKMORE'S U. S. TRIAL
OPENS AT ENID SEPT. 25

Bentley Hearing Also Set for Same Session of Federal District Court.

Federal prosecution of W. J. ("Bill") Creekmore, reputed to have made a fortune from bootlegging operations in Oklahoma, is scheduled to begin Monday, September 25, in Enid, at a special term of federal district court. Creekmore is charged jointly with M. A. Cain and others with conspiracy to violate federal laws.

Creekmore was convicted December 20, last, of conspiracy to violate state prohibition laws, and appealed. Hearing on the appeal is scheduled for September 22. Upon conviction he was sentenced to one year in jail and fined $500.

B. H. Bonfey of Oklahoma City, formerly head of the Bonfey Loan and Investment company of this city, indicted by a federal grand jury here for alleged misuse of the United States mails will be tried Friday, September 29, at the same session of court in which Creekmore's case will be heard.

Regular terms of federal court for the ensuing year will be held as follows: Guthrie, January; Oklahoma City, March; Enid, June; Lawton, September; Woodward, September. The Enid session begins September 5.

Germany Apologizes For U-Boat's Act

THE HAGUE, Aug. 21.—It is officially announced that the German government had admitted that the Dutch steamer Rijndijk, torpedoed off the Selly islands last April, was struck by a German torpedo and has apologized and offered to compensate the owners, a Rotterdam shipping firm.

German Terms Are Called Impossible

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The German government has as yet shown no disposition to agree to peace except on terms that would be intolerable or humiliating to some of the allies," said Premier Asquith, replying in the house of commons today to Sir William Poldard Byles, one of the little group of peace advocates.

GUESS WHO THIS IS!

This is Charles Evans Hughes, republican candidate for president, who at Butte, Mont., last week donned miners' clothes and went 2,800 feet below the surface of the earth in a copper mine. The photograph shows him operating an air drill while nearly half a mile underground.

ROBBERY THOUGHT MURDER REASON: NEGRO ARRESTED

There wasn't, and he called me a liar. We argued there for a few minutes and he said, "You are just like the other fellow we had—you just went up there and drank some of that beer." I told him no, and he said there was never a negro who didn't drink when he got a chance."

"He was lying on a pallet and he sat up. I don't remember what words he said; but, anyway, I said 'You had better put me off.' I didn't like to work for any man who curses me.' He called me to give me my money, a dollar and a half, and so I told him that's right. I started and he called me a name. I turned around and called him another one. And then he threw a beer bottle at me. Tells of Attack.

"He turned and then laid down on his left elbow with his face east. I thought he was in the act of lying down. I grabbed the rod and ran up the steps on the porch, and struck him with the rod and he dropped. It seemed I didn't hit him hard enough and I started to hit him again but was nervous and scared and dropped the pipe on his head. I then jumped off the porch and ran and threw the pipe in the weeds. The negro said he picked up the money after he hit Hodges."

Victim's Family Comes.

Mrs. Hodges, at Enidton at the time of the murder, returned to the city Sunday morning. Hodges is survived also by two children.

Hodges was known to the police as a bootlegger. According to Assistant County Attorney Selly Hodges was to have been placed on trial in the county court this week on a charge of violating the prohibitory law. Officers yesterday located three "plants" on the Hodges place.

the allies and beaten off efforts to recapture ground taken.

Repulse Means Little.

The attempted counter offensive by the German and Bulgarian force on both flanks of the entente allies in Macedonia with the apparent intention of hindering the plans of General Sarrail, the entente commander, will have no effect on the execution of his campaign if it is said here. The fourth Greek corps which had divisions at Serrai, at Kavala and at Drama, fell back before the Bulgarians, who are advancing in eastern Macedonia. The Bulgarians have occupied Hermann, crossed the Nestos river and occupied Kavala.
